art.31

Article 6.15 Any person who disputes the register of members and asks for inclusion of his/her/its name (title) in or removal of his/her/its name (title) from the register of members may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for rectification of the register of members. MP art.40

Article 6.16 If the share certificate (the "original certificate") held by any person who is a registered shareholder or who claims to be entitled to have his/her/its name (title) entered in the register of members is lost, such person may apply to the Company for a replacement share certificate in respect of such shares (the "Relevant Shares"). MP art.41

Application by a holder of domestic shares, who has lost his/her/its share certificate, for a replacement share certificate shall be dealt with in accordance with Article 143 of the Company Law.

Application by a holder of H Shares, who has lost his/her/its share certificate, for a replacement share certificate may be dealt with in accordance with the law of the place where the original register of members for holders of H Shares is maintained, the rules of the stock exchange or other relevant regulations. The issuance of a replacement share certificate shall comply with the following requirements:

- (I) The applicant shall submit an application to the Company in a prescribed form accompanied by a notarial certificate or a statutory declaration, of which the contents shall include the grounds upon which the application is made and the circumstances and evidence of the loss, and the declaration showing that no other person is entitled to have his/her/its name entered in the register of members in respect of the Relevant Shares.
- (II) The Company has not received any declaration made by any person other than the applicant declaring that his/her/its name shall be entered in the register of members in respect of such shares before it decides to issue a replacement share certificate to the applicant.

- (III) The Company shall, if it intends to issue a replacement share certificate to the applicant, publish a notice of its intention to do so at least once every 30 days within a period of 90 days in such newspapers as prescribed by the Board of Directors.
- (IV) The Company shall, prior to publication of its intention to issue a replacement share certificate, deliver to the stock exchange on which its shares are listed, a copy of the notice to be published and may publish the notice upon receipt of confirmation from such stock exchange that the notice has been exhibited in the premises of the stock exchange. Such notice shall be exhibited in the premises of the stock exchange for a period of 90 days.
- (V) In the case of an application which is made without the consent of the registered holder of the Relevant Shares, the Company shall deliver by mail to such registered shareholder a copy of the notice to be published.
- (VI) If, by the expiration of the 90-day period referred to in items (III) and (IV) of this article, the Company has not received any objection from any person in respect of the issuance of the replacement share certificate, it may issue a replacement share certificate to the applicant pursuant to his/her/its application.
- (VII) Where the Company issues a replacement share certificate pursuant to this article, it shall forthwith cancel the original share certificate and document, and the cancellation of the original share certificate and issuance of a replacement share certificate shall be recorded in the register of members accordingly.
- (VIII) All expenses relating to the cancellation of an original share certificate and issuance of a replacement share certificate shall be borne by the applicant and the Company is entitled to refuse to take any action until reasonable guarantee is provided by the applicant.

Article 6.17 Where the Company issues a replacement share certificate pursuant to the Company's Articles, as for a bona fide purchaser obtaining new share certificates referred to above or a shareholder registered as a owner of the shares (in case of a bona fide purchaser), his/her/its name (title) shall not be removed from the register of members. MP art.42

Article 6.18 The Company shall not be liable for any damages sustained by any person by reason of the cancellation of the original share certificate or the issuance of the replacement share certificate unless the claimant is able to prove that the Company has acted in a deceitful manner. MP art.43

Chapter VII Rights and duties of shareholders

Article 7.1 A shareholder of the Company is a person who lawfully holds shares in the Company and whose name (title) is entered in the register of members. MP art.44

A shareholder shall enjoy rights and assume obligations in accordance with the class and amount of shares held by him/her; shareholders who hold shares of the same class shall enjoy the same rights and assume the same obligations.

The Company shall not exercise any power to freeze or otherwise impair the rights attached to any shares held by any person on the grounds that such person has not disclosed his/her direct or indirect equity interest to the Company. App 3 12

Article 7.2 Where two or more persons are registered as joint holders of any shares, these persons shall be deemed as the common owners of the related shares, subject to the following restrictions:

- (I) if one of the joint holders has passed away, the surviving shareholder shall be deemed by the Company to have the ownership of the related shares, but the Board of Directors is entitled to ask for the provision of the suitable death certificate for the purpose of revision of the register of members;
- (II) for the joint holders, only the first named shareholder in the register of members has the right to receive the share certificates of the related shares, receive the notice of the Company, attend the general meeting and exercise his/her/its voting right; while, any notice delivered to the said shareholder shall be deemed as if the notice has been delivered to all of the joint holders of the related shares;
- (III) a receipt of any dividend bonus or capital returns payable to the joint shareholders sent by any of the joint shareholders to the Company shall be deemed as a valid receipt sent by all the joint shareholders to the Company.

Article 7.3 The shareholders of ordinary shares of the Company shall enjoy the following rights: MP art.45

- (I) to receive dividends and other distributions in proportion to their shareholdings; Guide to Articles of Association art.32

 - (D) primary and all other part-time occupations and duties;
 - (E) identification documents and the numbers thereof.
 - (3) status of the Company's share capital;
 - (4) reports on the aggregate par value, number of shares, ceiling and bottom price of each class of shares repurchased by the Company since the previous financial year, as well as all the expenses paid by the Company therefor;
 - (5) minutes of general meetings (only available to shareholders);
 - (6) the latest audited financial statements of the Company, and the reports of directors, supervisors and auditors;
 - (7) stubs of corp or at ebonds, resolutions of Board meetings, resolutions of Supervisory Committee meetings, and financial reports;
 - (8) copy of the latest annual return filed with Chinese State Administration for Industry and Commerce or other competent authorities;
 - (9) special resolutions of the Company.

- (VI) in the event of the termination and liquidation of the Company, the right to participate in the distribution of remaining assets of the Company in accordance with the number of shares held;
- (VII) shareholders having objection to resolutions of the general meeting concerning merger or division of the Company may require the Company to buy their shares;
- (VIII) to commence legal proceedings and claim related rights concerning any act infringing upon the interests of the Company or its shareholders pursuant to Company Law or other laws and regulations;
- (IX) other rights conferred by the laws, regulations, relevant listing rules and the Articles of Association.

Article 7.4 Shareholders of the Company's ordinary shares shall assume the following obligations: MP art.46

- (I) to observe laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association; Guidance to Articles of Associations art.37
- (II) to pay up any shares subscribed by them in the manner as they agree to invest in the Company;
- (III) not to withdraw their capital unless in the circumstances stipulated by laws and regulations; and
- (IV) not to abuse shareholder's right to damage the interests of the Company or other shareholders; not to abuse the independent status of the Company as a legal person or shareholder's limited liability to damage the interests of the creditors of the Company;

Any shareholder of the Company who abuses shareholder's right and causes any loss to the Company or other shareholders shall be taken liable for compensation in accordance with the laws.

Any shareholder the Company who has abused the independent capacity of the Company as a legal person or shareholder's limited liability to evade debts and damaged the interests of the creditors of the Company shall bear joint liability for the Company's debts.

- (V) other obligations imposed by the laws, regulations and stipulations of the Articles of Association.

Except for the conditions agreed upon by the share subscriber at the time of subscription, the shareholder does not bear any liability for further contribution to share capital.

Article 7.5 A written report shall be submitted to the Company on the date when the pledge is executed by a shareholder holding more than 5% of voting shares of the Company in respect of his shares. Guide to Articles of Association art.38

Article 7.6 The controlling shareholders and de facto controllers of the Company shall not use their connected relations to damage the interests of the Company. If they violate the rules and cause damages to the Company, they shall be liable to pay compensations.

The controlling shareholders and de facto controllers of the Company shall bear fiduciary duty towards the Company and public shareholders. The controlling shareholders shall duly exercise their rights as contributors strictly in accordance with the laws, and shall not damage the legitimate rights and interests of the Company and public shareholders by such means as profit distribution, asset reorganization, external investment, fund appropriation and loan guarantee and shall not abuse its capacity as a controlling shareholder to damage the interests of the Company and public shareholders.

Article 7.7 Except for the obligations as imposed by the laws, regulations or the listing rules of the relevant stock exchange, the controlling shareholder, when exercising its rights as a shareholder, shall not make any decisions imperiling the interests of all or part of the shareholders by exercising its voting rights in respect of:

MP art.47

- (I) act honestly in the best interests of the Company in removing a director or supervisor;
- (II) to approve the expropriation by a director or supervisor in any manner of the Company's assets in any form (for the benefits of his own or another person), including (but not limited to) any opportunity beneficial to the Company;
- (III) to approve the expropriation by a director or supervisor of the personal rights and benefits of other shareholders (for the benefits of his own or another person), including (but not limited to) any right to distribution and voting, unless pursuant to the reorganization of the Company as submitted to and adopted by the general meeting in accordance with the Articles of Association.

Article 7.8 The “controlling shareholder” referred to in the preceding article means a person who satisfies one of the following conditions:

MP art.48

- (I) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, has the power to elect more than half of the Board of Directors;

Association
art.41
Guarantee
Notice

(I) the total amount of external guarantees provided by the Company and its subsidiaries reaches or exceeds 50% of the latest audited net assets;

(II) the gearing ratio of the entity to be guaranteed exceeds 70%;

(III) the amount of a single guarantee exceeds 10% of the latest audited net assets;

(IV) the guarantee is provided to shareholders, the de facto controllers and their connected persons;

(V) any external guarantee to be given by the Company after the total amount of guarantees provided by the Company has reached or exceeded 30% of the latest audited total assets of the Company;

(VI) other matters concerning guarantees that shall be approved by the general meeting as stipulated by the laws and regulations and the Articles of Association.

“External guarantee” as mentioned in the Articles of Association refers to guarantee provided by the Company for other parties, including those provided by the Company for its subsidiaries. “Total amount of external guarantee of the Company and its subsidiaries” refers to the sum of the total external guarantee provided by the Company including those provided by the Company for its subsidiaries and the total amount of external guarantees provided by the subsidiaries of the Company.

If any director, the chief executive officer, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior executive causes loss to the Company by violating any stipulations regarding the examination and approval authority and procedure of approval concerning external guarantee specified in the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, he shall be taken liable for compensation, and the Company may pursue action against him pursuant to the laws.

Article 8.5 Matters which, pursuant to the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, are required to be approved by the general meeting shall be considered at such meetings so as to protect the decision-making power of the shareholders of the Company on such matters. Under necessary and reasonable circumstances, the general meeting may authorize the Board to decide, within the scope of a mandate granted by the general meeting, specific matters relating to matters to be resolved on by the general meeting which may not be decided upon immediately at a general meeting.

Governance Standards art.7; Company Law art.104

Article 8.6 Resolutions on grant of a mandate to the Board of Directors by a general meeting mandate granted shall be passed by shareholders holding more than half of the voting shares present at the meeting (including their proxies) if they relate ordinary business; and shall be passed by shareholders holding more than two-thirds of the voting shares present at the meeting (including their proxies) if they relate special business. The description of the mandate shall be exact and specific.

Article 8.7 The general meeting is divided into annual general meeting and extraordinary general meeting. The general meeting is convened by the Board of Directors.

MP art.52

Article 8.8 Annual general meetings are held once a year, and shall take place within 6 months from the end of the previous financial year.

Guide to Articles of Association art.42, 43;

General meetings may be held in a physical form or in a non-physical form as permitted by law.

Company Law art.100 Opinion art.6

The Board of Directors shall call an extraordinary general meeting within 2 months upon occurrence of any of the following:

- (I) When the number of directors is less than that specified in the Company Law, or two thirds of that specified in the Articles of Association;
- (II) When the uncovered loss of the Company reaches one third of the entire share capital of the Company;

- (III) When shareholder(s) severally or jointly holding 10% or more of the Company's shares request to do so;
- (IV) When the Board of Directors deems necessary or the Supervisory Committee so requests;
- (V) When two or more independent directors so requests;
- (VI) Other circumstances stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, department rules or the Articles of Association.

The number of shareholding mentioned in (III) above is calculated as required in writing by the shareholder(s).

Article 8.9 The Company shall give a written notice of an annual general meeting 20 days before the date of the annual general meeting, while it shall give a written notice of an extraordinary general meeting 15 days before the date of the extraordinary general meeting, to inform all shareholders whose names are shown in the share register of the matters to be considered at the meeting as well as the date, the time and place of the meeting.

Association
art.53

Motions not set out in the notice of general meeting or not complying with Article 8.9 of the Articles of Association shall not be voted on or resolved at the general meeting.

Article 8.12 Motions of a general meeting refer to specific motions regarding matters which shall be discussed at the general meeting. Motions at a general meeting shall meet the following requirements:

Articles of Association art.52, 53

- (I) The contents shall comply with provisions of the laws, regulations and the Articles of Association and shall fall within the scope of functions and powers of the meeting;
- (II) The motions shall cover specific topics for discussion and specific matters to be resolved;
- (III) The motions shall be served or submitted to the Convener in writing.

Article 8.13 The notice of general meeting shall meet the following requirements:

MP art.56
Guidance to Article of Associations art.55, 56

- (I) Be given in writing;
- (II) Designate the place, date and time of the meeting;
- (III) State the matters to be discussed at the meeting;
- (IV) Provide shareholders with such information as is needed to enable the shareholders to make informed decisions on the matters to be discussed. This principle includes (but not limited to) specific terms and conditions of the transactions contemplated and the contract (if available) shall be provided, and that the reasons for and effects of the proposed transaction shall be properly explained, when the Company proposes merge, repurchase of shares, restructuring of its share capital or other reorganization;
- (V) where any director, supervisor, chief executive officer, general manager, deputy general manager or other senior management personnel has material interests in the matters to be discussed, the nature and to what extent they are interested therein shall be disclosed; where the impact of the matters to be discussed on such director, supervisor, chief executive officer, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior management personnel who are shareholders is different from the impact on other shareholders of the same type, then that difference shall be illustrated;
- (VI) contain the full text of any special resolutions to be passed at the meeting;
- (VII) contain conspicuously a statement that shareholders entitled to attend and vote have a right to appoint one or more proxies to attend and vote on his behalf and that a proxy so appointed need not be a shareholder;

(VIII) specify the time and address for lodging the proxy forms for use at the meeting.

If the election of directors or supervisors is proposed to be discussed at a general meeting, the notice of a general meeting shall adequately disclose the biographical details of the director or supervisor candidates, which shall at least include:

1. personal particulars, including academic qualifications, work experiences, and concurrent positions;
2. whether such person has any connection with the Company, its controlling shareholders and de facto controllers;
3. the number of shares of the Company held by such person;
4. whether such person has been punished by the securities regulatory authority of the State Council or any other relevant authority or been reprimanded by any stock exchange.

Unless a director or supervisor is elected via the accumulative voting system, the election of each director or supervisor candidate shall be proposed as a separate proposal.

After the notice of general meeting is issued, the meeting shall not be postponed or cancelled and the motions set out in the notice shall not be cancelled without proper reasons. In the case of any postponement or cancellation of the meeting, the convener shall make an announcement and give the reasons therefor at least 2 workdays prior to the date on which the meeting is originally scheduled.

Article 8.14 Notices of general meetings shall be delivered to shareholders (with or without voting right at the general meeting) by hand or by pre-paid mails to the address as recorded in the register of shareholders. For A Share holders, such notices can also be made in the form of an announcement for A Shares. For H Share holders, notices of general meetings can be made in the form of an announcement on the website of the Stock Exchange and the Company's website.

MP art.57
App3 7(3)

The announcement for A Shares as mentioned in the preceding paragraph shall be published in one or more newspapers as designated by the securities supervisory authority of the State Council. Once published, all A Share holders shall be deemed to have received the relevant notice.

- (I) have the same right as the shareholder to speak at the general meeting;
- (II) have the right to demand or jointly with others to demand a poll;
- (III) to vote by show of hands or on a poll, but in the event of more than one proxy is appointed, such proxies can only vote on a poll;
- (IV) Where the shareholder is a recognized clearing house as defined in Hong Kong laws, it may authorize one or more persons as he deems appropriate to act on his behalf at any general meeting or class meeting; however, where several persons are thus authorized, the power of attorney shall specify the number and class of shares represented by each of such persons. The persons thus authorized may exercise rights on behalf of the recognized clearing house (or agent thereof) as if such persons were the individual shareholders of the Company.

Article 8.17 The Board of Directors, independent directors and qualified P General shareholders may collect votes from shareholders of the Company at a general meeting. The public collection of votes of shareholders of the listed company shall comply with the provisions of the relevant regulatory authority and the stock exchange on which the Company's shares are listed. While collecting votes of shareholders, sufficient disclosure of information such as the specific voting preference shall be made to the shareholders from whom voting rights are being collected. No consideration or other form of de facto consideration shall be involved in the collection of voting rights from shareholders. The Company shall not impose any limitation related to minimum shareholdings on the collection of voting rights. P General

art. I (III)

Article 8.18

An individual shareholder attending a general meeting in person shall produce his/her identity card or other identity certificate or share account card; a proxy attending a general meeting on behalf of an individual shareholder shall produce his/her identity card and power of attorney of the shareholder. For a corporate shareholder, its legal representative or a proxy appointed thereby shall attend the meeting. The legal representative attending the meeting shall produce his/her identity card or valid certificate bearing evidence of his/her qualifications as legal representative; a proxy attending the meeting on behalf of the legal representative shall produce his/her identity card and power of attorney issued by the legal representative of the corporate shareholder.

The power of attorney issued by a shareholder to appoint a proxy to attend a general meeting shall specify:

1. the name of the proxy;
2. whether the proxy has any right to vote or not;
3. instructions as to vote for or against or abstain from voting on each and every resolution included in the agenda of the general meeting;
4. the date of issue and validity period of the power of attorney;
5. Signature (or seal) of the appointor. In case of a corporate shareholder, the corporate seal shall be affixed; and
6. specify the number of shares to be represented by the proxy; if several persons are appointed as the shareholder's proxies, the power of attorney shall specify the number of shares to be represented by each proxy.

Any proxy form given by the Company's Board of Directors to shareholders for the purpose of appointing their proxies shall be such as to enable a shareholder to freely instruct his proxy(ies) to vote in favor of or against the relevant resolutions, and give separate instructions as regards to each of the matters to be voted on for each topic of the meeting. The proxy form shall contain a statement that, if no instruction is given, his proxy(ies) may vote as he may think fit.

Article 8.19 The proxy form for appointing a proxy shall be placed at the Company's domicile or another place as designated in the notice of the meeting no less than 24 hours before the time appointed for convening of the meeting where the proxy form is intended for use, or 24 hours prior to the designated voting time. Where the proxy form is signed by another person authorized by the appointor, the power of attorney or (if any) or other authority (if any) under which it is signed shall be notarially certified. The certified power of attorney (if any) or other authority (if any) shall be placed at the Company's domicile or another place as designated in the notice of the meeting, along with the proxy form for voting. MP art.61

In case of a corporate shareholder, its legal representative or another person authorized by a resolution of the Board of Directors or other decision-making organ shall attend the Company's general meeting as representative.

Article 8.20 A vote made in accordance with the terms of a proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the death or loss of capacity of the appointor or revocation of the proxy or the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the shares in respect of which the proxy is given, provided that the Company has not received any written notice in respect of such matters prior to the commencement of the relevant meeting. MP art.63

Article 8.21 When a connected transaction is considered at a general meeting, the connected shareholders shall not vote, and the voting shares held by them shall not be counted in the total number of valid shares with voting rights; the announcement of any resolution made at the general meeting shall adequately disclose information relating to voting by non-connected shareholders. Guide to Articles of Association art.79

A connected shareholder mentioned above refers to a shareholder: who is a connected person or a person or an associate (as defined in relevant listing rules) of such person and that person has material interests in the to-be-voted transactions in accordance with the listing rules (as amended from time to time) though he is not a connected person.

Article 8.22 Resolutions made at general meetings are divided into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions. MP art.64

An ordinary resolution of a general meeting shall be passed by more than half of the shareholders (including proxy(ies)) with voting rights attending the general meeting.

A special resolution of a general meeting shall be passed by more than two thirds of the shareholders (including proxy(ies)) with voting rights attending the general meeting.

The attending shareholders (including proxies) shall vote for or against every matter to be voted on, unless securities registration and settlement institutions, as the proxies of Shares traded through Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect, make declarations according to the intention of actual holders. Abstentions will not be counted when the Company calculates the poll results concerning the particular matter.

Article 8.23 A shareholder (including his proxy(ies)) shall exercise his voting right in respect of the number of voting shares held by him, with each share having one vote except otherwise provided in Article 10.4 of the Articles of Association concerning accumulative voting on election of directors. The Company has no voting right for the shares it holds, and such part of shares shall be excluded from the total number of voting shares represented by the shareholders attending the general meeting.

Where material issues affecting the interests of small and medium investors are being considered in the general meeting, the votes by small and medium investors shall be counted separately to the extent technically feasible. The separate counting results shall be publicly disclosed in a timely manner.

The Company shall, subject to the general meetings being legally and validly held and in accordance with requirements under laws, administrative regulations, regulatory rules and these Articles of Association, make it convenient for the shareholders to attend the general meetings through various means, including using modern information technology to establish an online voting platform in priority to the extent technically feasible.

The controlling shareholder and actual controller of the Company shall not limit or hinder small and medium investors from exercising their voting rights in accordance with laws, and shall not damage legal rights of the Company and small and medium investors.

Article 8.24 A resolution of the general meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is demanded by any of the following persons before (or after) any vote by a show of hands:

- (I) Chairman of the meeting;
- (II) At least two shareholders entitled to vote present in person or by proxy;
- (III) One or more shareholders present in person or by proxy and representing 10% or more of all Shares carrying right to vote at the meeting individually or in aggregate.

Unless a poll is demanded, the declaration by the chairman of the meeting as to the result of the voting on a resolution by a show of hands and the entering of the same into the minutes book of the meeting shall be the conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn by the person making such demand.

APP3 14

Chapter IX Special procedure for voting by class shareholders

Article 9.1 Shareholders holding different classes of shares shall be classified as class shareholders.

MP art.78

Class shareholders shall enjoy the rights and shall undertake the obligations pursuant to the provisions of laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association of Association.

Article 9.2 Rights conferred on any class of shareholders may not be varied or abrogated unless approved by a special resolution at the general meeting and by holders of shares of that class at a class meeting conducted in accordance with Articles 9.4 to 9.8.

MP art.79

Where any change in domestic and overseas laws, administrative regulations and relevant listing rules or any decision made by the domestic or overseas regulatory authority gives rise to change or abrogation of the rights of class shareholders, no approval at a general meeting or class general meeting shall be necessarily required unless there are provisions set out in relevant laws and regulations to the contrary.

Article 9.3

The following shall be deemed as a variation or abrogation of the right of a class shareholder: MP art.80

- (I) to increase or reduce the number of shares of such class, or to increase or reduce the number of shares of any class carrying equal or more rights on voting, distribution or other privileges;
- (II) to exchange all or part of the shares of such class, or to exchange or grant rights to exchange all or part of the shares of another class into the shares of such class;
- (III) to abrogate or reduce the rights of shares of that class to receive dividends declared or accumulated;
- (IV) to reduce or abrogate the preferential rights conferred on shares of that class to receive dividends or distribute assets upon the liquidation of the Company;
- (V) to increase, abrogate or reduce the conversion rights, options rights, voting rights, rights of transfer, pre-emptive rights and rights to acquire the securities of the Company conferred on shares of such class;
- (VI) to abrogate or reduce the rights conferred on shares of that class to receive monies payable by the Company in a particular currency;
- (VII) to create a new class of shares conferred with equal or more rights on voting, distribution or other privileges than those conferred on shares of that class;
- (VIII) to restrict or increase restrictions on the transfer or ownership of shares of that class;
- (IX) to issue subscription rights or conversion rights in respect of that class or another class of shares;
- (X) to increase the rights and privileges of another class of shares;
- (XI) to implement any reorganisation plan of the Company which will lead to a non pro rata assumption of obligations by holders of shares of different classes;
- (XII) to amend or abrogate the provisions set out in this chapter.

Article 9.4 Shareholders of the affected class, whether or not otherwise having the right to vote at general meetings, shall nevertheless have the right to vote at class meetings in respect of matters concerning items (2) to (8) and (11) to (12) of Article 9.3, but interested shareholder(s) shall not be entitled to vote at class meetings. MP art.81

The meaning of “interested shareholder(s)” as mentioned in the preceding paragraph is:

- (I) in the case of a repurchase of shares by offers to all shareholders on a pro rata basis or public dealing on a stock exchange under Article 4.4, a “controlling shareholder” within the meaning of Article 7.8;
- (II) in the case of a repurchase of share by an off-market contract under Article 4.4, a holder of the shares to which the proposed contract relates;
- (III) in the case of a restructuring of the Company, a shareholder within a class who bears less than a proportionate obligation imposed on that class under the proposed restructuring or who has an interest in the proposed restructuring different from the interest of shareholders of that class.

Article 9.5 Resolutions of a class of shareholders shall be passed by votes representing more than two-thirds of the voting rights of shareholders of that class represented at the relevant meeting who, in accordance with Article 9.4, are entitled to vote at class meetings. MP art.82

Article 9.6 A written notice of a class meeting shall be given pursuant to the requirements of the notice period for convening a general meeting as specified in Article 8.9 of the Articles of Association to notify all of the shareholders in the share register of the class of the matters to be considered, the date, the time and the place of the class meeting. Company Law art.102

Article 9.7 Notice of class meetings need only be served on shareholders entitled to vote thereat. MP art.84

Any meeting of a class of shareholders shall be conducted in a manner as similar as possible to that of general meetings. The provisions of the Articles of Association relating to the manner to conduct any general meeting shall apply to any meeting of a class of shareholders.

Article 9.8 In addition to other classes of shareholders, holders of domestic shares and holders of H shares are deemed to be different class of shareholders. MP art.85, A13D(1)(f)

The special procedures for voting at any meeting of a class of shareholders shall not apply to the following circumstances: A13D (1)(f)(i)

- (I) where the Company issues, upon the approval by special resolution of its shareholders at a general meeting, either separately or concurrently once every twelve months, not more than 20% of each of its issued and outstanding A shares and H shares; or A13D (1)(f)(ii)
- (II) where the Company's plan to issue A shares and H shares at the time of incorporation is implemented within fifteen months from the date of approval by the securities supervisory and administrative authorities of the State Council. Where the Company's plan to issue A shares and H shares at the time of its establishment is carried out within fifteen months from the date of approval by the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council.

Chapter X Board of directors

Article 10.1 The Company shall have a Board of Directors which shall be responsible for reporting its work to the general meeting. The Board of Directors shall consist of five to nineteen directors, including one chairman and no more than two vice chairmen. Of the directors, at least two members shall be executive directors taking charge of the day-to-day business consigned by the Company; the other members shall be non-executive directors who do not deal with the day-to-day business. MP art.86 Opinion art.6; Opinions of independent directors art. I(III)

At least one third of the total members of the Board of Directors shall be independent directors, and at least one independent director shall have appropriate professional qualification or shall have accounting or related financial management expertise.

At least half (inclusive) of the directors shall be external directors (i.e., directors not holding any position in the Company), and the Board of Directors shall have at least two independent non-executive directors (i.e., directors independent of the shareholders of the Company and not holding any position in the Company).

Article 10.2

A director shall be elected or changed at the general meeting, with a term of office of three years commencing on the date of election. Upon expiry of his term, a director shall be eligible for re-election. However, the consecutive terms of a re-elected independent director shall not exceed six years. Prior to the expiry of the term of office of a director, a new director shall be elected on a timely basis at a general meeting.

Candidates for directors other than independent directors shall be nominated by the Board, the Supervisory Committee, or shareholder(s) severally or jointly holding more than 3% of the total number of shares attached with voting rights of the Company, and shall be elected at a general meeting of the Company.

A written notice of the intent of candidates nominated for directors and the candidates' clear indication of their acceptance of nomination shall be delivered to the Company after the date of delivery of the notice of the general meeting at which the director is to be elected and at least seven days before the date of such meeting, and the notice period shall not be shorter than seven days.

APP3 4 (4)

Subject to compliance with the relevant laws and administrative regulations, any director with an unexpired term of office may be removed by an ordinary resolution at the general meeting (but without prejudice to any claim for compensation pursuant to any contract).

APP3 4 (3)

Where a director has not been timely re-elected at the expiry of the term of office, the original director shall perform his/her duties as a director, prior to the assumption by the re-elected director, in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and rules as well as the provisions of the Articles of Association.

The chairman of the board shall be elected or removed by a majority of all the directors of the board. The term of office of each of the chairman is three years, renewable upon re-election.

A director is not required to hold any shares of the Company.

Article 10.3 Non-independent directors shall be elected by the following procedure:

- (I) The consent of the person who is nominated as a non-independent director shall be sought before nomination and adequate information about the occupation, academic qualification, title, detailed working experience, all concurrent undertakings, etc. shall be gathered submitted to the Company in writing. The candidates shall undertake in writing to the Company stating that they accept the nominations, their information disclosed publicly is truthful and complete and they will diligently fulfill the obligations as a director upon election.
- (II) Where a person is nominated as a non-independent director candidate before the Company holds the Board meeting, and if there are relevant provisions set out in the governing laws, regulations and/or the relevant listing rules, the written documents relating to the nominee as described in (I) of this article shall be announced together with the resolution of the Board pursuant to the said provisions.
- (III) Where shareholders severally or jointly holding more than 3% of the total number of the shares attached with voting rights of the Company propose an extraordinary resolution regarding the election of non-independent directors, the letter of intention of the proposing director, the notice in writing of the nominee indicating his willingness to accept the nomination, the written documents and undertakings of the nominee as described in (I) of this article shall be submitted to the Company ten days prior to the date of the general meeting. The said notice shall not be issued earlier than the next day after the issue of the notice of the meeting at which directors will be elected, and shall not be later than seven days before the date of the said meeting.

Governance
Standards art
18, 19

Article 10.4 Resolutions in respect of the election of directors shall be passed using an accumulative voting method, which means if more than two directors are to be elected at the general meeting, every share held by the voting shareholders shall have one voting right equal to the number of directors to be elected, and any shareholder may put all of his voting rights on one director candidate or put his voting rights among different director candidates.

Directors art.
IV(V)

The expenses incurred by the directors for attending Board meetings shall be borne by the Company. These expenses shall include the costs of transportation between the premises of the director and the venue of the meeting in different cities and accommodation expenses during the meeting. Out-of-pocket expenses such as rent of the meeting place and local transportation costs shall be paid by the Company.

Article 10.15 The decisions on the matters considered on Board meetings convened or not convened shall be recorded as minutes in Chinese. The independent directors' opinions shall be set out in the resolutions of the Board meetings. The minutes of each Board meeting shall be provided to all the directors as soon as possible. Directors who wish to make supplementary amendments to the minutes shall report their opinions on the proposed amendments to the chairman within a week upon receipt of the minutes. After the minutes are finalized, all the attending directors and persons recording the minutes shall sign on the minutes. Minutes of the Board meetings shall be kept at the domicile of the Company, and a complete copy shall be sent to every director as soon as possible. The meeting minutes shall be kept for at least 10 years.

Article 10.16 Directors attending the meeting shall sign their names on the minutes of the meeting. Where a resolution of the Board meetings violates laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association and causes serious losses to the Company, the directors who took part in such a resolution shall be liable to compensate the Company. However, if a director can prove that he had expressed his opposition to such resolution when it was put to the vote, and such opposition is recorded in the minutes of the meeting, the director may be relieved of such liability.

Article 10.17 The Board of Directors may accept Board meetings in the form of written communications over the resolutions to replace meetings on site. However, draft motions of the meeting must be delivered to all directors by hand, mail, telegraph or fax. After the Board of Directors has delivered the motion to all directors and that the number of directors giving consent and signature to the motion has reached the quorum, such motion, if delivered to the secretary to the Board of Directors by means of methods referred to above, shall become a board resolution and no convening of a Board meeting shall be required.

Article 10.18 A director shall abstain from voting and shall not have a right to vote if he/she or any of his/her associates (as defined in the Listing Rules) has a conflict of interest with any resolution proposed at a Board meeting. Such director shall not be counted in the quorum of the relevant meeting.

Article 10.19 A director may resign before his term of office expires. In resigning his duties, a director shall tender a resignation to the Board in writing and an independent director, in particular shall specify any matter which is related to his resignation or which he considers necessary to bring to the attention of the Company's shareholders and creditors, and the disclosure of which will be made by the Board in two days.

If the number of members of the Board falls below the quorum as a result of any resignation, such resignation shall not become effective until the vacancy resulting from such resignation is filled up by a succeeding director. The remaining directors shall convene an extraordinary general meeting as soon as possible to elect a director to fill the vacancy caused by the said resignation. Before a resolution is made at a general meeting in relation to the election of directors, the functions and powers of such resigning director and other remaining directors shall be subject to reasonable restrictions.

If the proportion of independent directors of the Board falls below the minimum requirement of the relevant regulatory authority as a result of the resignation of any independent director, such resignation shall not become effective until the vacancy resulting from such resignation is filled up by a succeeding independent director.

Save as provided in the preceding paragraph, a director's resignation shall become effective when his or her resignation is served to the Board.

Chapter XI Independent directors

Article 11.1 Independent director candidates shall be nominated by the Board, the Supervisory Committee, or shareholder(s) severally or jointly holding more than 1% of the total number of the voting shares of the Company, and shall be elected at a general meeting of the Company.

Opinions of Independent
Directors art.
IV(I)

- (I) The nominator of an independent director candidate shall seek the consent of the nominee before nomination, shall collect adequate information about the occupation, academic qualification, title, detailed work experience, all concurrent undertakings, etc., and shall submit the said information in writing to the Company. The candidates shall undertake in writing to the Company that they accept the nomination, that the information announced about them is true and adequate, and that they will diligently fulfill their duties as directors if elected;
- (II) The nominator of independent director candidates shall give an opinion on the qualification and independence of the nominee to act as an independent director, covering relevant provisions in applicable laws, regulations and/or relevant listing rules, and the nominee shall publicly declare in accordance with such provisions that there is no relationships between him and the Company which may possibly affect his independent and objective judgment;
- (III) Where an independent director candidate is nominated before the Company holds the Board meeting, if the governing laws, regulations and/or the relevant listing rules have relevant provisions, the written documents relating to the nominee as described in (I) and (II) of this Article shall be announced together with the resolution of the Board in accordance with the said provisions;
- (IV) If shareholder(s) severally or jointly holding more than 3% of the total number of the voting shares of the Company or the Supervisory Committee submits a provisional proposal on election of independent directors, then a written notice stating the intention to nominate director candidates and the nominee's consent to the nomination, the written documents and undertakings of the nominee as described in (I) and (II) of this Article shall be submitted to the Company 10 days before the convening of the general meeting;

- (V) Before the general meeting for election of independent directors, if the governing laws, regulations and/or the relevant listing rules have relevant provisions, the Company shall pursuant to the said provisions submit the relevant documents concerning the nominee to the securities regulatory authority of the State Council and/or its local office and the stock exchange in which the Company's shares are listed. If the Board disputes the particulars pertaining to the nominee, the written opinions of the Board shall also be submitted. If the securities regulatory authority of the State Council opposes to the nomination of a candidate, such candidate may not be included as an independent director candidate. When a general meeting is convened to elect independent directors, the Board shall make a statement on whether there was any objection to the nominations from the securities regulatory authority of the State Council.

Article 11.2 An independent director shall meet the following basic conditions:

- (I) having the qualifications as director of the Company in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and other relevant provisions;
- (II) having the independence as required by the laws, administrative regulations, department rules and the relevant listing rules;
- (III) having basic knowledge about operations of listed companies, and proficient in relevant laws, administrative regulations and rules (including but not limited to applicable accounting standards);
- (IV) having more than five years' experience in legal and economic work or other work required for fulfilling the duties of independent directors;
- (V) other conditions specified in the Articles of Association.

Article 11.3 Independent directors shall have independence. The following persons shall not serve as independent directors save for otherwise specified in the governing laws, regulations and/or relevant listing rules:

- (I) persons employed by the Company or its subsidiaries and their immediate family members or other relatives (immediate family members shall include spouse, parents and children, while other relatives shall include siblings, parents-in-law, sons/daughters-in-law, spouses of siblings, siblings of spouse);
- (II) natural person shareholder who directly or indirectly holds more than 1% of the Company's issued shares or who is one of the top ten shareholders of the Company, and his immediate family members;
- (III) entity owned by the shareholders which directly or indirectly hold more than 5% of the Company's issued shares or the persons working in the entities owned by any top five shareholders of the Company, and their immediate family members;
- (IV) persons who fall into categories (I) to (III) in the preceding year;

- (V) persons who provide financial, legal and consulting services to the Company or its subsidiaries;
- (VI) persons deemed by the securities regulatory authority of the State Council as not qualified to serve as an independent director.

If an independent director fails to attend the Board meeting in person or by proxy for two consecutive times or fails to attend the Board meeting in person for three consecutive times, the Board shall propose to remove the said director at the general meeting. Unless in the circumstances mentioned above or as specified in Company Law where a person is prohibited from acting as a director, no independent director may be removed before his term of office expires without any justification. In the event of premature removal, the Company shall disclose it as a special issue. If the removed independent director deems his removal by the Company as unjustifiable, he may make an explicit declaration.

Article 11.4 An independent director shall have the following special powers in addition to the powers granted to directors under the Company Law, other relevant laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association:

- (I) Major connected transactions (as defined in accordance with the standards issued from time to time by the relevant regulatory authority) that shall be considered and approved at a general meeting pursuant to the laws, regulations and/or relevant listed rules, and appointment or dismissal of accounting firm, shall comply with the relevant provisions of in the laws, regulations and/or relevant listed rules (if any), and shall be submitted to the general meeting for consideration upon approval by more than half of the independent directors. Resolutions made by the Board in relation to the connected transactions of the Company shall not be effective unless signed by the independent directors; the independent directors may, before making judgment, appoint an intermediary to provide independent financial and advisory reports as a basis for their judgment;
- (II) to propose to the Board for appointment or dismissal of accounting firm;

The general manager of the Company may attend the Board meetings, but only the managing director has a voting right at the Board meeting. MP art.101

Article 13.5 In exercising their functions and powers, the chief executive officer, general manager, deputy general managers, chief accountant or chief financial officer shall not modify the resolutions passed at the general meeting and the Board meeting, nor shall they exceed the scope of authorization.

Article 13.6 In performing their functions and powers, the chief executive officer, general manager, deputy general managers, chief accountant or chief financial officer shall act honestly and diligently in accordance with the laws, regulations and the Articles of Association.

Article 13.7 The chief executive officer, general manager, deputy general manager, chief accountant, chief financial officer and other senior executive may resign prior to the expiration of his term of office, however, he shall notify the Board by giving 30 days' written notice; a department manager shall notify the general manager by giving 30 days' written notice.

Article 13.8 The general manager shall formulate relevant working rules for general manager, which shall be implemented upon approval by the Board.

Chapter XIV Supervisory committee

Article 14.1 The Company shall have a supervisory committee, which is a standing organization of the Company responsible for supervising the Board and its members, the chief executive officer, general manager, deputy general managers, chief accountant, chief financial officer and other senior executives, and preventing the same from abusing their powers to infringe upon the legitimate rights and interests of the shareholders, the Company and employees thereof. MP art.103

Article 14.2 The Supervisory Committee is composed of not less than 3 persons (inclusive), including one as chairman of the Supervisory Committee. His appointment and dismissal is subject to voting by more than two thirds of the supervisors. They have a term of 3 years, and are eligible for re-election and re-appointment. The chairman shall make arrangement for fulfilling the duties of the Supervisory Committee. MP art.104, A13D (1)(d)(i)

The duties of the chairman of the Supervisory Committee include: ZJHH art.5

- (I) convening and presiding over meetings of the Supervisory Committee;
- (II) making arrangement for fulfilling the duties of the Supervisory Committee;
- (III) exercising other functions and powers conferred by the Supervisory Committee.

Article 14.3 The Supervisory Committee can be composed of external supervisors (not serving any positions in the Company, including shareholder’s representatives, same below) and employees’ representatives. External supervisors are elected and dismissed by the general meeting of the Company, while the employees’ representatives are elected and dismissed by the employees of the Company in a democratic way.

MP art.105
Guide to Articles of Association art.
143

In the Supervisory Committee of the Company, external supervisors shall account for more than one half of all the supervisors. The proportion of employees’ representative in the Supervisory Committee should not be lower than one third.

Opinion 7

Additional and supplemental supervisors elected by the general meeting or the Company’s employees, have their term starting from the date of election and ending on the termination of the term of the Supervisory Committee.

Article 14.4 The directors, chief executive officer, general managers, deputy general managers and other senior executives of the Company shall not serve as supervisor concurrently.

MP art.106

Article 14.5 The Supervisory Committee shall hold at least two regular meetings every year.

MP art.107

The chairman shall convene and preside over meetings of the Supervisory Committee; where the chairman cannot or does not fulfill his duty, more than one half of the supervisors may elect a supervisor to convene and preside over the meetings of the Supervisory Committee.

Guide to
Articles of Association
art.143, 148

The notice convening the meeting of the Supervisory Committee shall be served to all the supervisors 10 days before the date of a regular meeting or 5 days before the date of an interim meeting. The notice shall include the following information:

- (I) the time, venue and duration of the meeting;
- (II) the reasons and topics for discussion; and
- (III) the date on which the notice is sent.

Article 14.6 If a supervisor fails to attend meetings of the Supervisory Committee in person or by proxy for two consecutive times, the said supervisor shall be deemed incapable of performing his duties and shall be removed by the general meeting or the meeting of employees’ representatives.

Article 14.7 If the term of office of a supervisor expires but reelection is not made responsively or if any supervisor resigns during his term of office so that the membership of the Supervisory Committee falls short of the quorum, the said supervisor shall continue to fulfill his duties as supervisor pursuant to relevant laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association until a new supervisor is elected.

Article 14.8

The Supervisory Committee is responsible for the general meeting, and performs the following functions in accordance with the law:

- (I) Inspect the financial issues of the Company;
- (II) Examine the periodical reports of the Company prepared by the Board and issue written opinions thereon;
- (III) Supervise over the actions taken by the directors, chief executive officer, general manager, deputy general managers and other senior executives of the Company in violation of the laws, regulations or the Articles of Association when performing their duties; propose dismissal of directors, chief executive officer, general manager, deputy general managers and other senior executives who are in breach of the laws, administrative rules, the Articles of Association or the resolutions of general meetings;
- (IV) When the actions taken by the directors, chief executive officer, general manager, deputy general managers and other senior executives of the Company impair the interests of the Company, require the above mentioned persons to take corrective actions;
- (V) Review such financial documents as financial reports, operation reports and profit distribution schemes to be submitted by the Board to the general meeting. In the event of any doubts, it may in the name of the Company appoint a certified public accountant or practising auditors to help with the recheck;
- (VI) Propose the convening of extraordinary general meetings and, in case that the Board fails to perform its duties to convene and preside over the general meetings in accordance with the Company Law, convene and preside over the general meetings;
- (VII) Deal with or sue against directors and senior executives on behalf of the Company;
- (VIII) Present proposals to the general meetings;
- (IX) Propose to convene an interim Board meeting;
- (X) Other functions and powers stipulated by the relevant laws, administrative rules and the Articles of Association or granted by the general meetings.

Supervisors may attend the meetings of the Board of Directors, but have no voting right.

The Supervisory Committee may give an opinion on the appointment of an accounting firm for the Company, may appoint another accounting firm to independently examine the financial issues of the Company if necessary, and may directly report to the securities regulatory authority of the State Council and other relevant authorities.

The shareholder supervisor shall independently report to the general meeting on the honesty and due diligence of the senior executives of the Company.

The supervisors may attend the Board meetings and make inquiries or suggestions in relation to the resolutions of Board meetings.

Article 14.9 A supervisors' meeting can only be held when more than one half supervisors can attended. MP art.109
A13D (1)(d)(ii)

Resolutions of the Supervisory Committee are subject to the voting by more than two thirds of the supervisors.

Article 14.10 The Supervisory Committee may require directors, chief executive officer, general manager and deputy general manager and other senior executives of the Company, and internal and external auditors to attend meetings of the Supervisory Committee and answer the questions raised.

Article 14.11 The Supervisory Committee shall file resolutions as minutes, which shall be signed by the attending supervisors. Any supervisor shall have the right to make an explanatory note in the minutes regarding his speech at the meeting. The minutes of the Supervisory Committee shall be kept for at least 10 years. - (iii) not depriving the Company of its properties by any means, including (but not limited to) favorable opportunities for the Company; and
- (iv) not depriving shareholders of personal rights and interests, including (but not limited to) the rights of distribution and voting, except the restructuring of the Company submitted to and approved by the general meeting in accordance with the Articles of Association.

Article 15.5 When exercising their rights or performing their duties, the director, supervisor, chief executive officer, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior executives of the Company shall be responsible for behaving with prudence, diligence and skills a reasonably prudent person would exercise under similar circumstances. MP art.115

Article 15.6 When performing their duties, the director, supervisor, chief executive officer, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior executives of the Company shall observe the principle of good faith, and shall not place themselves in a position where their interest may conflict with their obligations. The principle includes (but is not limited to) the following obligations:

- (i) acting in good faith with a view to maximize the Company's interests;
- (ii) exercising rights within the scope of authority, without exceeding such scope;
- (iii) personally exercising the discretionary power without manipulated by other persons;

the discretionary power shall not be assigned to any other person, unless as approved by laws, administrative regulations, or with informed approval of the general meeting;

- (iv) equally treating shareholders of the same class and fairly treating those of different class;
- (v) except as otherwise provided in the Articles of Association or with informed approval of the general meeting, not to enter into any contracts, transactions or arrangements with the Company;
- (vi) without informed approval of the general meeting, not to utilize the Company's property by any means for their own interests;
- (vii) not to take advantage of the position to accept bribes or other illegal income, or misappropriate the property of the Company by any means, including (but not limited to) favorable opportunities for the Company;
- (viii) without informed approval of the general meeting, not to accept commissions related to the Company's transactions;
- (ix) observing the Articles of Association, faithfully performing their responsibilities and protecting interests of the Company, and not to take advantage of their position and power to seek personal interests;
- (x) without informed approval of the general meeting, not to compete with the Company by any means;
- (xi) not to misappropriate the Company's funds or to lend such funds to other persons, not to deposit the Company's funds in the account opened in personal name or otherwise, or utilize the assets of the Company to provide guarantee for the personal debt of the Company's shareholders or other persons; and

(xii) without informed approval of the general meeting, not to reveal the confidential information of the Company gained during their term of office; unless for the interest of the Company, not to take advantage of such information for personal purposes, however, in any one of the following circumstances; such information may be disclosed to the court or other governmental authorities:

- (1) provided by laws;
- (2) required for public interests; and
- (3) required by the director, supervisor, chief executive officer, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior executives for his/her own interests.

Earnings obtained by directors, the chief executive officer, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior executives in violation of the provisions herein shall belong to the Company, and they shall be liable for compensation for any loss incurred to the Company.

Article 15.7 If the directors, supervisors, chief executive officer, the general manager, deputy general managers or other senior executives are required to attend the general meeting, they shall attend the meeting and make explanations in relation to the inquiries and suggestions of the shareholders. The directors, supervisors, chief executive officer, the general manager, deputy general managers or other senior executives of the Company shall honestly provide the Supervisory Committee with relevant information and shall not prevent the Supervisory Committee from exercising their functions and powers.

art.152;
Company
Law 166

If the statutory common reserve fund is insufficient to make up for the losses of the preceding year, the profits of the current year shall first be used to make up for the said losses before any statutory common reserve fund is withdrawn as per the preceding paragraph.

After statutory common reserve fund is withdrawn out of the after-tax profits, discretionary common reserve fund may also be withdrawn as per a resolution made at a general meeting.

The after-tax profits remaining after recovery of losses and withdrawal of common reserve funds may be distributed as dividends to the shareholders in proportion to their shareholding percentages.

Article 16.10 The Company shall not distribute dividends or distribute its profit in any other manner before it makes up for its losses and makes allocations to statutory surplus reserve. The dividends bear no interest, except that the Company fails to distribute related dividends to shareholders when they fall due.

Company
Law 166

Article 16.11 The capital surplus includes the following sums:

MP art.138
Company
Law art.167

- (I) Premium gained from stock issued in excess of the face value;
- (II) Other monies that should be listed in the capital surplus as specified by financial competent departments of the State Council.

Article 16.12 The common reserve funds (including statutory common reserve fund, discretionary common reserve fund and capital reserve) of the Company shall be used to make up for the losses, enhance the operating scale or increase the capital of the Company. However, the capital reserve shall not be used to make up for the losses of the Company. If the Company converts the common reserve funds into the capital by a resolution of the general meeting, the Company shall distribute new shares as per the existing equity structure or increase the par value per share. However, when statutory common reserve fund is converted into capital, the amount of the said fund left shall not be less than 25% of the registered capital of the Company.

After the profit distribution plan is adopted at the general meeting, the Board shall finish distributing dividends (or shares) within two months after conclusion of the general meeting.

Article 16.13 The Company may distribute the dividends in the following forms:

- (I) Cash;
- (II) Shares.

Article 16.14 The basic principles of the profit distribution policy of the Company are as follows:

- (I) The Company shall take full account of return to investors and distribute dividend to its shareholders each year in proportion to the distributable profit realized in the year concerned (being the lower of the amounts as stated in the financial statements and the consolidated financial statements of the parent company);
- (II) The Company shall devote itself in creating reasonable return to its shareholders, maintain the continuity and stability of its profit distribution policy, and operate its businesses for the long-term interest of the Company, the entire interest of all its shareholders and the sustainable development of the Company; the Company's profit distribution shall neither exceed the amount of accumulated distributable profit nor undermine its ongoing operation;
- (III) The Company shall give priority to dividend distribution in cash.

Article 16.15 The profit distribution policy of the Company is specified as follows:

- (I) Profit shall be distributed in the following manner:

The Company may distribute dividends in cash, in shares, in a combination of both cash and shares or otherwise as permitted by laws and regulations. The Company shall give priority to dividend distribution in cash. Subject to the adherence of the profit distribution principles and conditions, the Company shall in principle distribute profit each year. The Board of the Company may propose interim profit distribution with reference to the Company's profitability and capital requirements.

- (II) Specific circumstances and proportions of cash dividend of the Company are as follows:

The following conditions shall be met in distributing cash dividends by the Company:

1. If the Company makes profit and the distributable profit realized in the year concerned (i.e. after-tax profits of the Company net of loss recovery and allocation of its profits to the statutory reserve) are positive (according to the financial statements of the parent company) with adequate liquidity, the Company may distribute dividend in cash provided that it shall not undermine the subsequent ongoing operation of the Company.
2. External auditors had issued a standard unqualified audit report for the financial statements of the Company for that year.
3. The capital needs for the Company's normal operation are satisfied and there is no such event as significant cash expenditure, excluding projects funded by raised proceeds.

Such significant cash expenditure refers to the proposed external investment, asset acquisition, repayment of debts or acquisition of equipment by the Company with accumulated expenditure within the following 12 months amounting to or exceeding 30% of the latest audited net assets of the Company.

The Company shall comply with the proportions set out as follows when proceeding with distributing cash dividends:

Pursuant to the provisions of the Company Law of the People's Republic of China and relevant laws and regulations, as well as the Articles of Association, provided that the conditions for cash dividend distribution are satisfied and are in consistent with the normal operation and sustainable development of the Company, dividends distributed in the form of cash to be made for each of the coming three years shall not be less than 10% of the distributable profit realized for that year, on condition that no imminent cash outlays are expected. Also, the accumulated cash distribution of profit for the three years shall not be less than 30% of the average annual distributable profit of the Company for the same period. The specific distribution proportion for each year shall be determined by the Board of the Company based on the Company's operating conditions and relevant rules of the CSRC and submitted to the general meeting for consideration and approval.

The Board of the Company shall take various factors into consideration, including its industry features, development stages, business model and profitability as well as whether it has any substantial capital expenditure arrangements, and differentiate the following circumstances to propose a differentiated policy for cash dividend distribution pursuant to the procedures stipulated in the Articles of Association:

1. Where the Company is in a developed stage with no substantial capital expenditure arrangements, the dividend distributed in the form of cash shall not be less than 80% of the total profit distribution;
2. Where the Company is in a developed stage with substantial capital expenditure arrangements, the dividend distributed in the form of cash shall not be less than 40% of the total profit distribution;
3. Where the Company is in a developing stage with substantial capital expenditure arrangements, the dividend distributed in the form of cash shall not be less than 20% of the total profit distribution;

In the case that it is difficult to distinguish the Company's stage of development but the Company has significant capital expenditure arrangements, the profit distribution may be dealt with pursuant to the preceding provisions.

- (III) Conditions for distributing dividends in shares by the Company are as follows:

Where the Company's business is in a sound condition, and the Board considers that the share price of the Company does not reflect its share capital size and distributing dividend in the form of shares is in the entire interest of all the shareholders of the Company, the Company may adopt dividend distribution in the form of shares provided that the above conditions for cash dividend are fully satisfied. Should the Company distribute dividends in shares, it should be made on the premise of maintaining reasonable cash dividend returns and appropriate capital size and take into account the growth of the Company and dilution in net assets per share.

Article 16.16 Procedures for reviewing the profit distribution plan of the Company and related information disclosure are as follows:

- (I) Procedures for consideration of the profit distribution plan of the Company:
1. The Company's profit distribution plan shall be drafted by the management of the Company with reference to investors' opinions, and shall then be submitted to the Board and the supervisory committee of the Company for consideration and independent directors shall express their opinions. The Board shall thoroughly discuss the profit distribution plan, keep detailed records of the contents of the recommendations of the management, key points of the speeches of the Directors present at the meeting, voting results of the Board, etc. and prepare written minutes to be properly kept as the Company's records. The Board shall thoroughly discuss the rationality of the profit distribution plan and prepare a specific resolution and submit it to the general meeting for consideration.

2. If the Board receives a distribution plan from other shareholders that satisfies relevant conditions, the Board shall ask the relevant shareholders for the specific reasons and background of such plan, and publish an announcement setting out the contents and reasons of the plan in accordance with the “Rules of Procedures for General Meeting” of the Company and submit it to the general meeting for consideration.
3. Independent directors may solicit opinions from minority shareholders, put forth profit distribution plan and submit it directly to the Board for consideration and approval.
4. Before the cash dividend distribution plan is considered at the shareholders’ general meeting, different channels should be used to proactively communicate and interact with shareholders, in particular, the medium and small shareholders, and the Company shall fully listen to the opinions and demands of minority shareholders and timely answer the questions raised by minority shareholders.
5. After the end of an accounting year, when the Board meeting does not propose any plan for profit distribution in cash in spite of making profit in that accounting year, it shall explain matters such as the specific reasons for not proposing any profit distribution in cash and the actual usage of the profit retained by it for the independent directors to issue their opinions on such issues, and then submit the same at the general meeting for approval in accordance with the relevant laws, regulations and regulatory policies.

(II) Information disclosures regarding profit distribution plan of the Company:

1. The Company shall disclose in details in its periodic report the formulation and implementation of the profit distribution policy, especially cash dividend policy, and state whether the policy is in compliance with the requirements of the Articles of Association or the resolutions passed at the general meeting; whether the basis and ratio of the distribution of dividends are clear; whether the relevant decision-making procedures and systems are sound; whether the independent directors have duly performed their duties; whether there are enough channels for medium and small shareholders to express their views and concerns, and whether their legal interests are sufficiently protected, etc.
2. In the event of any adjustment or alteration to the cash dividend policy, the Company shall fully describe whether the conditions and procedures for such adjustment or alteration are compliant and transparent.
3. Where no cash dividends distribution plan are proposed by the Board of the Company for the year when profits are recorded, the Board shall explain in details the reasons for not distributing cash dividends, the exact usage of and application plan for the retained profits in the periodic report, and the independent directors shall express their opinions thereon.

4. Where there is a change in the control of the Company resulting from securities issuance, material asset restructuring, merger and division or acquisition, the Company shall disclose in details the cash dividend policy and relevant arrangements after the offering or issuance, restructuring or change in control, as well as the Board's explanation of the aforesaid in the prospectus, offering proposal, report of material asset restructuring, report of changes in equity or report of acquisition.

Article 16.17 Any alteration of the Company's profit distribution policy: In case of war, natural disasters and other force majeure, or changes in the Company's external operational environment resulting in material impact on its production and operations, or relatively significant changes in the Company's operational position, the Company may adjust its profit distribution policy.

The Board shall conduct specific discussion over adjustment to its profit distribution policy, provide detailed reasons for such adjustment, form a written report to be considered by independent Directors, and then submit the same at the general meeting for approval by way of a special resolution. In considering alterations to its profit distribution policy, the Company shall make internet voting accessible to its shareholders.

Article 16.18 Cash dividends and other monies paid by the Company to holders of A Shares shall be paid in RMB. Cash dividends and other monies paid by the Company to holders of H Shares shall be stated and announced in RMB and paid in HK$. Foreign currency needed by the Company to pay cash dividends and other monies to holders of H Shares shall be obtained pursuant to relevant state regulations on foreign exchange.

The Company has the right to sell the shares of shareholders whom the Company has failed to contact if the following two provisions are met: APP3 13(2)(a) and 13(2)(b)

- (1) Dividends of the related shares have been delivered 3 times within 12 years and have not been claimed; and
- (2) The Company puts advertisement) as defined in the Listing Rules) on newspapers after the 12 years has expired stating its intention to sell the shares and informs the Stock Exchange of such intention.

Article 16.19 Save as otherwise specified in relevant laws and administrative regulations, if the cash dividends and other monies are paid in HK$, the exchange rate shall be the average middle exchange rate issued by People's Bank of China one Gregorian week before announcement of the dividends and other monies.

Article 16.20 In distributing dividends to shareholders, the Company shall deduct and pay taxes payable by the shareholders pursuant to PRC tax laws.

Article 16.21 The Company shall appoint receiving agents for shareholders holding foreign capital stock. The receiving agent shall, on behalf of the related shareholders, receive dividends distributed by the Company for foreign capital stock as well as other payable sums. MP art.140

The receiving agents appointed by the Company shall meet the requirements of the laws or the securities exchange of the location of the listing. ZJHH art.8

The receiving agents appointed by the Company for holders of foreign shares listed in Hong Kong shall be trust companies registered pursuant to Trustee Ordinance of Hong Kong. A13D 1(c)

Provided that the relevant PRC laws and regulations are observed, the Company may exercise the right to seize dividends not collected, but the said right shall not be exercised before expiry of the applicable validity period.

Article 16.22 The Company shall conduct internal audit and assign full-time auditors to conduct internal audit and supervision on the revenues/expenditures and economic activities of the Company. Guide to Articles of Association art.156

Article 16.23 The internal audit system and duties of the auditors shall be subject to the approval of the Board. The auditors shall be accountable to the Board and report his work to the same. Guide to Articles of Association art.157
